

Peoples Christian Academy

September 13, 2010

Dear PCA alumni,

We hope you had a great Summer. Our God is gracious and we thank Him for another school year here at PCA.

For those who might have missed the last communication on Aug 18, OMB has ruled in favour of PCA and has allowed PCA to use 245 Renfrew as a private school and day care. We are currently processing all the necessary final formalities with the Town of Markham prior to starting renovation.

Since the OMB zoning decision, we have been actively discussing our needs with potential financiers who have shown interest in PCA's relocation project. At this point we are still targeting to move the school by September 2011. The date and the move strategy depend on the financing arrangement and its timing.

Please keep praying so that a plan can be finalized very soon.

In His Service,

The Board of Directors
